

POST-LISTENING ACTIVITY

Listen to the sound file again and take notes.

Then, go through the following list of utterances which are all part of the interview. Be careful! They are not in the correct order and there's an extra one that you should not use.

In pairs reconstruct the correct sequence.

The first one has been done for you.

1. f	a. They brought with them sweet potatoes.
2.	b. Rocks or stones were heated over a fire.
3.	c. He sent his men to go and gather some of the leafy green things.
4.	d. On an everyday basis they were very similar, in a way, to the Aborigines in Australia.
5.	e. They didn't have a hugely varied diet.
6.	f. People now use these traditions to cook a variety of things.
7.	g. This would be done for feasting, for little family occasions.
8.	h. It's sometimes misnamed as New Zealand spinach.
9.	i. The real tradition was only for vegetables.
10.	j. They did come from other Polynesian islands originally.
11.	k. It's become something to just try out.

KEY

1. f	a. They brought with them sweet potatoes.
2. b	b. Rocks or stones were heated over a fire.
3. g	c. He sent his men to go and gather some of the leafy green things.
4. k	d. On an everyday basis they were very similar, in a way, to the Aborigines in Australia.
5. d	e. They didn't have a hugely varied diet.
6. j	f. People now use these traditions to cook a variety of things.
7. a	g. This would be done for feasting, for little family occasions.
8. e	h. It's sometimes misnamed as New Zealand spinach.
9. c	i. The real tradition was only for vegetables.
10.h	j. They did come from other Polynesian islands originally.
11.i distracter	k. It's become something to just try out.